The country Germany is located in the continent Europe.

Climate

The climate in this country is cool and cloudy. It has wet winters and warm summers.

Terrain

The lowlands are in the North. The uplands are in the center. Bavarian Alps are located in the south.

Some of the major cities located in Germany are Munich, Berlin, Frankfurt. Munich is the third largest city in Germany. The city, Berlin is the capital of Germany. Frankfurt is the largest city in the state of Hesse.

Two famous landmarks located in Germany are Siegessaule and Olmpiastadion. Olympiastadion was built for the 1936 Summer Olympic. During World War 2, this stadium took little damage. Siegessaule was constructed to celebrate the successful military campaign.

Germany

Gold Red Black

Jacky Huang Joey Do

Australia, Belgium, Czech Republic, France, Poland, Switzerland, Netherlands, and Luxembourg are the land boundaries of Germany.

Water Areas

Germany's water areas are the North Sea and Baltic Sea.

International Disputes

For some reason, Germany has no international disputes.

Government

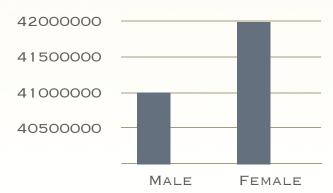

Germany's government is Federal Republic. The Federal Republic is a form of government made up of a federal state that has a constitutional and self governing military units.

Currency

In Germany, they use the form of currency called Euros. .8041 Euros equal 1 US dollar.

Male and Female Population

Natural Resources: coal, ignite, natural gas, iron ore, copper, nickel, uranium, potash, salt, construction material, timber, arable land.

Imports: Natural gas, oil, electricity, commodities.

Exports: electricity, oil, natural gas, commodities.

